

Measure your academic competencies and showcase your skills to future employers!

Written Communication

Earning a badge based on demonstrated proficiency in a skills-based assessment showcases your practical expertise to potential employers, making you a more competitive candidate in the job market. This credential validates your abilities and signals to employers that you are well-prepared to contribute effectively in your chosen career.

What skills does this test measure:

- Knowledge of social and rhetorical situations
 - Task, context and purpose
 - Audience awareness
 - Genre conventions
 - Composing in multiple modes and forms
- Disciplinary conventions (major/field)
- Content development and organization
- Use of sources and textual evidence
- Language use including word choice and grammar
- Writing processes

Earn your Written Communication badge today by achieving a Proficient or Advanced score. Once you've earned your badge, proudly share your success on LinkedIn or other platforms.

Log in to LifeJourney to access your assessments:
life.territorium.com

Your future starts now!

The HEIghten Outcomes Assessment suite measures core skills identified as critical in most educational standards towards career success. These are important to faculty, accrediting bodies, policymakers, students, and employers.

